

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: I nominated someone last year for a Global Health Service Award. Can I nominate again them this year?

A: Yes! Please fill out the application and click on the box “This Person Was a Past Nominee”. While additional documentation is not required, you will be given the option to upload any new materials that you feel will strengthen your previous application.

Q: Can an employee be selected for an award more than once?

A: Yes, there is no limit to the number of times an employee may be nominated or selected for a Global Health Service Award.

Q: My nominee is a volunteer on the Global Disaster Response team and they teach residents and fellows. Can they be nominated for more than one award in a single year?

A: Yes. Individuals can be eligible for multiple awards in a single year. However, you will need to submit a unique nomination for each award.

Q: Do nominees need to be full-time employees of Mass General?

A: Yes, only full-time employees of the MGPO or MGH are eligible for Global Health Service Awards. Clinical and administrative nominees are welcome.

Q: Can individuals who are not employees at Mass General Hospital nominate someone?

A: Yes, employees working at Partners affiliated institutions can nominate an employee of Mass General.

Q: Can Mass General employees in clinical training be nominated?

A: Yes, both residents and fellows are eligible for the Global Health Service Awards.

If you have any further questions, please contact globalhealth@partners.org.